

Easy-to-Use Epinephrine Options

Epinephrine is the first-line treatment for anaphylaxis, a severe allergic reaction.

- ✓ Epinephrine is safe and works quickly to stop serious symptoms.
- ✓ Carry epinephrine with you wherever you go.
- ✓ Talk with your doctor about the anaphylaxis treatment plan that's best for you.

Patient assistance programs are available. Visit the device website or call the company for more information.

Auto-Injectors

Press against outer middle thigh to inject.
Hold for a few seconds and remove.

AUVI-Q®
Adult, Pediatric, Infant
auvi-q.com
502-213-7601

EpiPen® and EpiPen Jr.®
And its authorized generic by Viatrix
Adult, Pediatric
epipen.com/en
800-657-7613

Epinephrine Injection
Generic of EpiPen, EpiPen Jr.® (Teva)
Adult, Pediatric
tevaepinephrine.com
844-248-7949

Epinephrine Injection
Authorized Generic of Adrenaclick™
Adult, Pediatric
epinephrineautoinject.com
330-757-8402

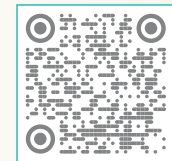

Nasal Spray

Insert nozzle into nose pointed toward forehead.
Press plunger to spray liquid into nostril.

neffy®
Adult, Pediatric (over 33 pounds)
neffy.com
877-696-3339

To learn more, visit
kidswithfoodallergies.org/epinephrine or scan this code.

Asthma and Allergy
Foundation of America

Copyright © 2024, Kids with Food Allergies, a division of the Asthma and Allergy Foundation of America (AAFA), all rights reserved. BY-NC-ND
Medical Review February 2024 by David Fleischer, MD | Revised Edition March 2025

